

Dos and Don'ts of Kashrut - May 7th at 10:30 a.m. and
May 17th at 7 p.m. – Berkovitz Hall

This class taught by Rabbi Goldstein is for anyone who wants to better understand the rules of keeping kosher as it relates to our Temple kitchen and Conservative Judaism. It is a required class for anyone who wishes to bake at home and bring those items into the Temple. You only need one class. Pick the one that is convenient for you.

Book Club!!! - May 17th

Next meeting is Wednesday, May 17th at 11am - Temple Building - Signer Board Rm.

Our book is "Hidden Ones: A Veil of Memories"
by Marcia Fine.

You still have time read the book!

In Marcia Fine's captivating Hidden Ones, a family of conversos battle to maintain their traditions under the ever-ferocious eye of the Catholic Inquisition resulting in a tense and inspiring picture of faith under fire.

Pet Shabbat – Friday, May 19th

Friday, May 19th – We encourage everyone to come to this service even if you don't bring a pet. Previous pet Shabbats have been enjoyable for humans and pets alike! Bring your pets and enjoy the fun! (No reptiles, please.)

Information on Special Events

Holocaust Survivor Speaker

SUNDAY, APRIL 30TH AT 2:00 P.M. – Holocaust Survivor, Irene Zisblatt will be with us. She is Jodie Snyder's aunt and is coming from south Florida to share her experiences with us and the community. Irene, born in 1929, is a Hungarian-born Holocaust survivor. She was an inmate in Auschwitz-Birkenau and was part of Dr. Joseph Mengele's experiments. She is well known for her autobiography, "The Fifth Diamond". Her experience was also highlighted in Steven Spielberg's 1999 Academy Award winning documentary, "The Last Days". As one of five Hungarian Holocaust survivors, whose story was featured in the documentary, it follows Irene, as she and her daughter travel back to sites of memory, including her childhood town and the ghetto she was placed in before she was deported to Auschwitz. The community is invited to attend and there is no charge for this event. A reception will follow where Irene will have her autographed book, "The Fifth Diamond" available for purchase. Please invite your friends in the community to this event. Mrs. Zisblatt will also be speaking to the Temple Emanuel Sunday School children (grades 3 and up) and their parents at 10:30 a.m.

Israel Independence Day - Tuesday, May 2nd

Yom Ha'atzmaut, ("Day of Independence) is a national day of Israel, commemorating the Israeli Declaration of Independence in 1948. In celebration, there will be an Israeli dinner at 6:30 p.m. A program will follow the dinner which includes movie, The Conflict, will be shown. Please RSVP by May 1st. Cost is $12 for adults , $6/children 12 and under.
