Dear Members of the Temple Emanuel Community,

In the past year we have come together for comfort, prayer, study and celebration – in a community that we support and that supports each of us. The wide variety of activities we are offering with the guidance of our new Rabbi and his wife, Dianne, will help us to move closer to the goals of Temple Emanuel.
 We now look forward to continuing this journey together in the 2014-2015 year. With the addition of our new spiritual leader, the Board of Directors and our members need to continue to continue to support and participate with religious services, religious school, and programming for the 2014-2015 fiscal year.
 As we begin this New Year, it is our responsibility to continue to plant seeds for the future. How many of us first joined or visited a synagogue in time of personal need or personal celebration? Jews depend on the synagogue being there – and through it we connect to Jewish communities worldwide and throughout time. We should also not forget that Temple Emanuel serves as a representative of the Jewish people in our local community at large.
 Our hope for the coming year is that all members renew their continuing support of Temple Emanuel and renew themselves by coming to services, celebrations, programs and study.

 Membership in a community involves more than just time and expertise. As Michael Riskin delivers the Kol Nidre Appeal at services on the eve of Yom Kippur, be reminded that we need your financial support for the building, staff and programs throughout the year. If you are financially able, please pledge as generously as you possibly can. Remember, it is our communal responsibility to insure that the doors of Temple Emanuel remain open to all.
 If you are a new or recently joined member or if you are a longer-term member but want to feel more engaged, please let us know your volunteer interests by checking the appropriate boxes on the 2014-2015 volunteer formin this edition of the Menorah. We will be in touch to help you get more involved with activities that interest you at Temple Emanuel. Our goal is for you to not feel like a guest within the building but to feel at home.
 We wish you and your families a very healthy and happy New Year.

Shalom,
 Board of Directors,
 Temple Emanuel

Temple Emanuel Members,

When Dianne and I prepared to move from South Florida over the summer, we put lots of our “stuff” in storage until we could find permanent housing in Lakeland. Packing for the big move afforded me the opportunity to look through some of the boxes of stored items we had held on to over the years and that process had a profound impact on me.

The process of unpacking evoked feelings and memories that brought both smiles to my face and tears to my eyes. Long unseen photos of my parents’ childhoods, their weddings, and my own childhood reminded me so urgently of the unnoticed passage of time that has occurred.

Looking through scrapbooks of theatrical work that I did in my earlier years, reading old press clippings and recalling experiences I had performing in night clubs in and around New York, frankly, shook me up, Who was that guy? Is that still me? How did I get from there to here? Who influenced the choices I made along the way? Would I make different choices today? What did I learn, if anything, from those experiences?

By the time you read this, we’ll just about be concluding the Hebrew month of Elul. It’s a Jewish custom to sound the shofar every day during the month of Elul to arouse us to begin the process or introspection that culminates with Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. I guess I started a little early this year!

Judaism has always put in its ritual yearly, monthly, weekly, and daily reminders to us of how we are behaving and what actions we are taking. Judaism is like a moral compass that helps keep us from straying too far from maintaining values like justice, compassion and trying to improve, by our presence, the word we’ve inherited.

To be more productive with my time and to have increased communication capacity, I upgraded my old cell phone from a Blackberry to a new I-phone. In the process of getting used to the new phone and all its bells and whistles, it was necessary to enter frequently-used phone numbers from my old phone to my new phone. As I was doing this, a feeling of High Holidays came over me and, in particular, the thoughts of the “Un’saneh tokef” prayer which we ponder, “Who shall live and who shall die?” It was jarring to remove names like my deceased father’s weekend aides, Connie and Bruce, the man from Kramer Services who oversaw the procuring of all the proper medications for my dad and dispensed them properly in those little boxes of morning, evening and daily pills, his doctor, and many of the people with whom I interacted who were so much a part of his life during his last months.

The changeover in phones forced me to reevaluate friendships and associations who decided, who in reality, I might call with some frequency. What “friends” can now get deleted from my call list? It’s unsettling to realize how many people come and go from one’s life and how abruptly relationships turn from hot to cold, as if the friendship never existed. It hurts. You wish you had communicated better to them how much their friendship meant to you.

During this week before the High Holidays, let us all take “inventory”. Where are we? Where do we want to be? What do we have to do to make necessary changes? What action should we take first?

Our Judaism guides us on the road to self-improvement.. We call it “Chesbon Hanefesh”, which I interpret as rethinking our values and our goals..doing some real “soul searching”.

Life is about change and how we handle it...whether a move to a new home, a new telephone, a new job, or a new relationship. Our patriarchs, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob all resettled several times during their lifetimes. Moses resettled at the age of 80 to begin a whole new career!

Struggle is part of life. Loss is part of life...but so is love, my dear friends. So is love! God loves us and with that knowledge in our hearts and in our minds, life is wonderful...even with all the changes we have to endure.

Dianne and I, and our entire family, wish you and yours a Shanah Tovah! God Bless You!

Rabbi Kieffer

Did you know that Temple Emanuel has a Facebook page? We have a website also. We are even thinking about joining Twitter!

You can use these resources to find out what is happening this week or the next few months; you can share your thoughts on what is happening locally, wish a member Happy Birthday, Happy Anniversary, Mazel Tov, etc. Often there are events in Tampa and Orlando that may be of interest to the larger Jewish community and we don’t hear about them until after the fact. We now share this information in a more timely fashion by using our social media outlets.

We would love to increase our presence online so that we can share our new with you and the greater Lakeland community. We would love you to share our posts so that we may reach a wider audience and hopefully bring some new facts to our services and events.

We need to use all avenues available to us, so please join in and LIKE our Facebook page and SHARE your postings: <https://www.facebook.com/TempleEmanuelLakeland>. You can see our posted events at: <https://www.facebook.com/TempleEmanuelLakeland/events>. Our website: <http://templeemanuellakeland.com>.

If you have any images to share, ideas to post or events to promote, please email the office with your requests. We would love to hear about your interests and we are eager to gain your participation.

Synagogue Decorum Guidelines for the Holidays

Please read and observe the following guidelines.

- ❖ NO ONE may enter or leave the sanctuary while the Ark is open, when the congregation is standing, or during the Cantor’s sermon.
- ❖ It is OUR CUSTOM for women to wear head coverings, particularly when called to the bemah. Women going up to the bemah must be wearing a dress or a skirt and top. Slacks are not permitted.
- ❖ KIPOT: All men must wear a kippah. Kipot should be placed on the head before entering the sanctuary and before putting on the tallit. Tallitot should be worn in the sanctuary at morning services and on Kol Nidre.
- ❖ DRESS CODE: Please note that everyone should dress in an appropriate manner, as befits the place and the occasion. Women must have their shoulders covered and no mini-skirts in the synagogue at any time. On Yom Kippur it is traditional to wear white or light colors and to refrain from wearing leather shoes or any leather.
- ❖ TICKETS will be checked by ushers as you enter the synagogue. Please adhere to their instructions regarding entering the sanctuary, seating, and leaving the sanctuary.
- ❖ ALL CELL PHONES, pagers, and electronic communication devices must be turned off before entering the synagogue. Taking photos, writing, and handling money is prohibited.
- ❖ NO SMOKING in the buildings or on the premises.

Schmooze News & Updates

Todah Rabbah! To Rhoda Goldsmith for planting and upkeep of flowers outside of the Education and main Buildings along with the Sunday School children to beautify our synagogue grounds.

Todah Rabbah! A huge thanks to Brian Renz for working with Polk Pump and Irrigation on the sprinkler system. He was instrumental in facilitating and providing financial support of this project.

Todah Rabbah! Thanks go to Jane Renz and all the Temple bakers and contributors for the wonderful Rosh Hashanah reception and to Tammy Serebrin for organizing Break the Fast.

Todah Rabbah! We'd like to thank all of our members who have been leading services throughout the summer months and who have been helping Rabbi Kieffer with Saturday services: Dr. Dan Leviten, Dr. Jordan Eckert, Ariel Yahkin, Daniel Boston, Marc Rapke, Marvin Wyman.

Todah Rabbah! Huge thanks to our Ritual Committee for signing and contacting people to do ark openings, responsive readings and aliyahs for the High Holidays, and for organizing the services; Jordan Eckert, Marc Rapke, Daniel Boston, Bill Sadowsky, Sarah Bingham, Amy Blocher, Tammy Serebrin.

Todah Rabbah! Thanks to all those who volunteer as greeters, readers and those who have taken Honors.

Todah Rabbah! Thanks go to Dr. Marvin Odro for organizing in this year's Shofar Troupe and to the Troupe participants.

Todah Rabbah to Sarah Behr and Brian Renz for taking it upon themselves to clean our buildings in the absence of a caretaker.

Todah Rabbah to Cat Eskin and her Sunday School class, along with Florida Southern College students, and Barry Freidman for sprucing up Temple Emanuel Cemetery grounds.

Todah Rabbah to Josh O'Connor for pressure washing the Temple and for assisting Brian with grounds upkeep.

Todah Rabbah to Michael and Jessica Shoffner for preparing the luncheon for the Tallit workshop.

Todah Rabbah to Rabbi and Dianne Kieffer for all their wonderful new programs they are bringing to the Temple and for their hard work and enthusiasm.

Todah Rabbah to Harvey and Myrna Garbow for their willingness to volunteer, even at the last minute, with office mailings.

Todah Rabbah to Amy Blocher for her hard work on the Book of Remembrance and to Gentry Morrison Funeral Home for their sponsorship of our Book of Remembrance and to Alphagraphics for their generosity regarding printing needs.

Todah Rabbah to Marvin Wyman for his continuous dedication to help and repair anything that needs done at the Temple; from Temple grounds to office assistance. Also, thanks for his gifts of various equipment and tools that he so graciously donates on a weekly basis.

Todah Rabbah to Tammy Serebrin for her daily dedication of keeping things running at the Temple. She contributes many hours of behind the scenes from post office runs, picking up supplies, assisting with newsletters, and so many other areas too numerous to list Her wealth of knowledge and willingness to "pitch in" where needed is invaluable.

Yom Kippur 5775 FOOD DRIVE

This Yom Kippur, feel good about fasting...donate the food that you will not be eating to someone who has little or nothing to eat.

Please bring non-perishable food items to our lobby. We will continue this collection until Tuesday morning, October 7th.

High Holy Day Ticket Information and Break the Fast

(Yom Kippur Break the Fast meal is not included with any ticket.)

Member Tickets: Tickets for High Holy Day services are included in current Temple Emanuel membership for members in good standing.

Guests of Members Including Relatives: $75 per person or $250 per family (Relatives are defined as adult children living away from your residence and their children, senior parents living away from your residence, in-laws, cousins, etc.)

Non-Members: $180 per person (May be applied to dues if you become a member.)

Rosh Hashanah only or Yom Kippur only: 1/2 of the costs above—all other qualifications apply.

Complimentary Tickets:

- Complimentary tickets are automatically sent to members in good standing of Temple Emanuel.
- If a guest belongs to another Synagogue, complimentary tickets are available to them by sending a letter from that synagogue verifying that they are a member in good standing.
- Complimentary tickets are available for college students.

How to Get Your Ticket

- All Temple Emanuel members in good standing and tickets are included in the High Holiday mailing. If for some reason, you did not receive your tickets, contact the office.
- Members without an e-mail address will receive their tickets in the postal mail.
- All tickets for extended family or visitors must be purchased prior to the High Holiday services.
- Please show your ticket to the greeter. Greeters at the door will have a list of who has been issued tickets for the holiday services.
