Book Club

The next Book Club will be held Tuesday, May 22 at 11 am in the Media Center of the Education Building, followed by an optional lunch out. Everyone is invited.

The next book selection is The Origin of Sorrow by Robert Mayer. The book is available in paperback, used, on kindle, and the library may be able to order it for you. The link to order on Amazon is: <http://smile.amazon.com/ch/59-0915228>

This is the story of a young girl Guttle, whose sweet face and curves could win her any man in her little world, but whose keen mind demands the best. It is the tale of Meyer Rothschild, who knows all the ways of the business world but discovers the ways of the heart. It is a tale of love and lust, of murder and betrayal, of holy works and unholy schemes, of bakers and brigands, of hope and of ruin. This is a novel, both amusing and sad, that will grace your bookshelf for generations— a book you will want your children to read and discuss as they reach maturity

Counting the Omer Food Drive

In observance of the Counting of the Omer please bring non-perishable food donations to Temple. Polk County has a very high rate of food stressed families. Let's join together to help. Suggestions: boxes of mac n cheese, canned vegetable and fruits, rice and peanut butter.

The Omer is 49 days long ending at Shavu'ot..... make an effort to bring in 49 food items or as much as you can.

We will be donating the items to a local food bank.
