Book Club

Our next meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 16 in the Media Center of the Education Building. Our next book selection is Jewboy of the South by Don Koplen. It is available on Amazon in paperback and kindle. We will have an optional lunch out following the meeting. Contact Jane with any questions Jane7751@aol.com.

The books is available at:

<https://smile.amazon.com/Jewboy-South-Don-Koplen/dp/1546923667/>

A Southern story is never a straight line to the end point. Ask a southerner about an event or how to get to a place and you'll hear about everyone and everything and everywhere along the way. It lurches forward, then backtracks, goes off center, infuriates and, eventually, rediscovers its luscious, rich, often humorous and just as often, perverse, path. It's made of, like the South itself, a soup pot of characters—redneck, slave roots, sex, blood, love, hate, war, religion, intrigue and wink of the eye—all chopped, diced and thrown into its cauldron. Often as not, it boils into a mess. But somehow, sometimes, if you enjoy a mélange of tastes, it blends into a delicious, or at least colorful, potage. So settle in, relax and enjoy this saga about a small-town southern Jewish boy and the characters who helped him grow up, learn about sex versus love, black and white, true religion, soul music and jazz, all while attempting to keep the love of his life, the Klan minister's daughter, and to free an innocent black man, his carpenter hero.

Summer Jewish Film Festival

Temple Emanuel proudly presents... A Summer Jewish Film Festival
Sunday August 5th 4:00 P.M. Cost: $5.00 at the door
Optional dinner out afterwards.

August 5th - "SNOW IN AUGUST"

Based on the New York Times best selling novel by Pete Hamill featuring a young boy from an Irish Catholic neighborhood of Brooklyn in 1947. The film follows the unlikely friendship that evolves between 11-year-old Michael and a Czechoslovakian Rabbi that stirs up the wrath of a local Irish gang from Michael's neighborhood. Adding to Michael's burden is the fact that he has witnessed a gang administer a bloody beating to a local Jewish merchant, frightening him into silence. The solution to Michael's problem manifests itself in his growing fascination with the legend of "the Golem," the vengeful statue that was supposed to have protected the Prague Ghetto from persecution centuries before — and also hinges upon the boy's adoration of the movie-serial hero Captain Marvel.
